

"BAYER CROSS" ON ASPIRIN

Always Ask for Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin"

Only Aspirin Tablets with the safety "Bayer Cross" on them are genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" owned and made by Americans and proved safe by millions of people. Unknown quantities of fraudulent Aspirin Tablets were sold recently by a Brooklyn dealer which proved to be composed mostly of Talcum Powder.

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" should always be asked for. Then look for the safety "Bayer Cross" on the package and on each tablet. Accept nothing else! Proper directions and dosage in each Bayer package.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monacopolis, Germany of Salicylic acid.

LOWNEY'S CHOCOLATES

Are Delicious. Try them. In pound and half pound boxes, at

DUNN'S PHARMACY
50 Main Street.

BETTER BREAD THAN OURS CANNOT BE BAKED

There is absolutely nothing that can be done to make our bread better than it is. When any form of improvement demonstrates itself you can be sure we will adopt it. But today the very best of modern equipment is ours, we employ the most competent bakers, we use the best flour and we have the most sanitary baking rooms possible to contrive.

The crispness, flakiness, tastiness and wholesomeness of our bread is the result that has gained favor everywhere. If not with you it's because you have never tried. You ought to.

Andrews' Bakery

Summit Street

We Serve Well

Your best interests if you deal with us. We select our own stock with so much care and discrimination that you cannot make a mistake in choosing anything we offer.

LET US SHOW YOU Some of our FEEDSTUFFS and tell you about our prices.

Chas. Slosberg & Son

3 COVE STREET
IT PAYS TO DRIVE OVER

We Sell

A fine 17 Jewel 20-Year-Guaranteed Gold Watch for $22.50. Get It On Easy Terms.

The Plant-Cadden Co.

135 to 143 MAIN STREET
Established 1872

SHOE REPAIRING

Done quickly and at reasonable prices. 10 YEARS' EXPERIENCE. Also Shoe Shining Parlor in connection.

BROADWAY SHOE REPAIR SHOP
52 Broadway

The Bulletin

Norwich, Monday, April 21, 1919

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 8.03 o'clock this evening.

The owner of a genuine Easter Lily Sunday was an object of envy.

The spring term in a number of the suburban schools opens today (Monday).

After noon Sunday, the mercury stood at 62 degrees in the shade in Norwich.

Strangers in town have complimented the window dressers who have made the Easter displays so attractive.

A plaza is being added and other improvements made to the house of Dr. Alfred Richards, on Warren street.

Several Norwich people were in Boston Saturday for Patriots' day, commemorating the 144th anniversary of the battle of Lexington.

Franklin street park has been cleaned up by the street department and makes an attractive grassy triangle in its present rest condition.

A number of English residents had cards from overseas relatives Saturday, Primrose day, in memory of Benjamin Disraeli, Lord Beaconsfield.

Norwich stores did a big business Sunday, fine weather bringing out the crowds, most of the shoppers proving in the good spender's class.

Crocuses and other spring flowers are making the grounds attractive at the residence of Mrs. William N. Blackstone, on Washington street.

A Niantic resident, Dr. Cyril C. Clark of York avenue, has just celebrated his 89th birthday. He was born in the town of Wells, York county, Maine, in 1830.

Licenses for dogs in the town clerk's office now: male and spayed dogs $12.50, female dogs $10.25. One dollar extra after May 1st—adv.

One of the promoters of an auction bridge party for the benefit of the New London Day nursery is Mrs. Robert B. Chappell, (Elizabeth Camp), formerly of Norwich.

At Thompson, Mrs. N. B. Ream has arrived from New York and is attending to having her residence, Carolyn Hall, prepared for occupancy the coming season.

This week at the United Congregational church, at the annual meeting of the Home Missionary society, the officers for the foreign hospitals are to be made.

The historic homestead of Edmund Clarence Steadman, at Norwich town, now owned by Mrs. Charlotte Fuller, of the Central Baptist church, is being remodeled.

The list of men, twenty-six in all, who make up Wesleyan University honor roll, includes Lieut. Walter P. Clark, of Norwich, killed in an airplane accident, Kelly Field, Texas.

The officers of St. Xavier's Ladies' Total Abstinence society, of New London, will be installed by County Director M. McQuinn of Norwich, Monday evening, May 5, in Temperance hall.

It has been discovered that lawless boys have thrown heavy stones which have cracked a number of the slates on the roof of the Central Baptist church, causing the roof to leak during the recent storms.

There is to be a parents' meeting April 22, in Bolton, when Superintendent Clough of the local schools will speak. The question of raising the teachers' salaries is to be considered to insure good teachers for the next year.

The Putnam Patriot writes that Patrick Clifford of Williamstown, who broke parole from the State Farm for inebriation at Norwich, was held by the local authorities until taken to the State Farm.

From the pulpit of St. Patrick's church Sunday the congregations were urged to do their part toward making the Victory loan a success, not only through liberal subscriptions as during previous loans, but by actively aiding in the campaign work.

According to an opinion written by Attorney General Frank E. Healy, inmates of the State Farm for Women, at East Lyme, cannot legally be paroled to private homes outside the state and the state farm is without authority to accept gifts.

Governor Marcus H. Holcomb having designated Erik May, as Arbor and Bird day, his proclamation has been sent to all the teachers of the state asking that they impress upon the children of the state the value of the trees and song birds.

At a meeting of home economics directors of the state, held at New Haven, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this county was represented by Mrs. Zoe Mendenhall of Norwich, who presented the convention an abundance of practical hints and suggestions.

The men who reached New York Friday on the Dante Alighieri, a 21,000 mile trip, arriving from Italy, said they left New London, Conn., on Easter day, in 1918 and made the voyage to their base, the port of Corfu, Greece, a distance of 4,838 miles, without mishap.

From the holiday fund collected by Mrs. Fred A. Byrnes and Miss Mary E. Richards, the wards at the Norwich Children's Hospital Saturday were decorated with flowering plants Sunday and each of the 120 patients was surprised with an Easter favor on his or her dinner tray.

Agents of the Connecticut Board of Education are receiving fever applications for working certificates since the new federal law went into effect April 1st, limiting the labor of children between 14-16 to eight hours a day and firing employers who violate the law 10 per cent of their net profits.

With no formal ceremony, Dr. Hugh E. Campbell, superintendent of the Norwich Sanatorium, his father and sisters, took possession of their new bungalow Easter Sunday.

Changed Cars.

A little girl was greatly pleased over the opportunity to accompany her mother on a visit to the city, where they spent a few days, and upon her return to her home she said: "Oh, daddy, we had such a nice time; we went in the sleeper and we came home in the sifter."

Real "Handy Man."

A Tasmanian jack of all trades claims that he is a hairdresser, tobaccoist, cycle repairer, electrical certified engineer, certificated marine engineer for the Derwent, organist and choirmaster, stencil cutter, fretworker, billiard hall keeper, proprietor circulating library, and is manager of the local town hall.

Stomach Trouble.

Edna, four, was going next door to her auntie. She was told by her mother not to eat anything while there as her stomach was upset. When she came in she said, "Auntie, mamma said I shouldn't eat anything because my stomach has tipped over."

Removes Oil.

Chloroform will remove machine oil from any garment except a silk one.

Optimistic Thought.

Keep good company and you'll be of them.

The fool and his fannels are soon naked.

PERSONALS

W. Bradford Walker of New Haven was in Norwich over Easter.

Frank R. Tracy of Stonington has been at his camp at Lantana Hill.

William Amburn of 45 Pearl street is spending several days in New York.

Horace E. Coyle of Philadelphia spent the Easter holidays at his home in this city.

Miss Muriel Holdridge of Dunham street is spending the Easter vacation in Hartford.

Miss Vera Stetson of West Thames street is spending Easter week in New York and New Haven.

A. I. Bush, Herbert Swinney and F. A. Beckwith of East Lyme have been business visitors in Norwich.

Harry Zellinger of Bridgeport, who formerly lived on Mt. Pleasant street, was here Sunday visiting friends.

Miss Nellie Church returned home Saturday afternoon from relatives and friends a week in Worcester, Mass.

Miss Alice Wolf of Dunham street is spending the Easter vacation with relatives in New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Annie Hill has returned to her home in Niantic, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Albion Hagstrom, of Norwich.

Mrs. Amelia Thompson of Nyack, N. Y., is in Niantic, where she will remain for a while before going to Salem for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dooley of Franklin street motored to Taunton on Saturday to spend the Easter week end with relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howard of Westfield, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Parsons of Peck street.

Mrs. William H. Bell, and Mrs. Geo. D. Johnson of Mystic, have been called to Barre on account of the death of Mrs. Prisswall's sister.

Lieut. John J. Slattery of Bridgeport, formerly of Norwich, who recently returned from overseas, spent the week end with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Marion Russell of East Lyme and her guest, Miss Elsie Thompson of Saybrook Point, were recent callers on Mrs. Russell's brother, Austin Reed in Norwich.

Elwin Kenyon and family returned to Westbury last week and are to reside in the Frederick L. Hall house, corner of West and Palmer streets, South Killingly.

The Misses Rose, Gertrude and Gladys Thorne, Miss Brenda House and the Misses Celeste and Marguerite Copeland, all of this city, were registered over Easter at the Martha Washington hotel in New York.

Mrs. Charles E. Simpson of Scotland, Conn., has returned home after spending a week in the city, where Mrs. William H. Palmer, of Westbury, her son, George E. Simpson, of Boston, spent the week-end with her there.

Private Ripple Morgan, son of Patman and Mrs. Myron D. Morgan, of Rogers avenue, who recently returned from 19 months' service overseas with the 102d ambulance corps, spent Easter with his parents in this city.

TWO BRUSH FIRES MAKE CALLS FOR DEPARTMENT

Two telephone calls for brush fires were answered Saturday afternoon by the auto pumper from the Main street station and Deputy Chief C. J. Connolly's car. The first was at 2 o'clock on the roof of the Central Baptist church, causing the roof to leak during the recent storms.

The second was for a brush fire at the rear of 25 Laurel Hill avenue and this also was fire to the roof of the house, which the firemen extinguished with chemical. The house is owned by Miss Jane Hill and the two residents are Mrs. J. Hill and Mrs. J. Hill.

FUNERAL.

Henry T. Bailey.

The funeral of Henry T. Bailey was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of his sister, Mrs. Frelove A. Miller, at 29 Fenwick street, with relatives from Mystic, North Stonington and Jewett City among the attendance. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

The services were conducted by Rev. E. A. Leary, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church. Two hymns, Beautiful Land on High, and Nearer, My God, To Thee were rendered by Mrs. William Crowe.

The bearers were Gordon E. Miller, James W. Fraser, Jr., Casper K. Bailey and David H. Purvis. Burial was in Preston City cemetery where Mr. Leary read a committal service. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers Henry Allen and Sons.

Fined in Police Court.

Alexander Oliver, colored, of Central Falls, R. I., was fined in the police court Saturday morning $7 for riding on a motorcycle without a light on it Friday night. He was one of a party of about twenty who came into the city with white while riding the motorcycles with the girls. The girls were kept at the police station overnight, but were allowed to leave on Saturday morning.

They said their parents knew of the trip they were making to attend a dance here Saturday night.

Breaks Arm Cranking Auto.

Carl Kinney of Clairmont avenue broke his right arm while cranking between the wrist and elbow Saturday afternoon while cranking an automobile on Broadway near the Waukegan house corner.

He is in the navy, having been stationed at New London, and was just about to receive his discharge, but this will probably prevent discharge until he has recovered from injuries.

Ray Gordon on Furlough.

Ray Gordon, who served in the 102d machine gun battalion with the 26th division in France, reaching Boston Thursday on the Steamer Patricia, was warmly greeted here Sunday by his many friends. He was on a short furlough but is to return to Camp Devens to await his final discharge.

Given Birthday Party.

Joseph Raven of Tenth street was given a birthday party at his home Friday night by about fifteen of his friends, some coming from out of town. He received many useful gifts.

The evening was pleasantly passed with music and games and refreshments were served.

Capt. Cantle Visits Here.

Captain Henry M. Cantle, U. S. Medical corps, who is charged with a debarcation hospital in New York, was an Easter visitor here, his former home.

Twelve Arrests Made.

Twelve arrests were made by the police Saturday night of which four were for breach of the peace and eight for intoxication.

Sells Lebanon Farm.

Deacon A. G. Kneeland has sold his farm to a Jewish purchaser from New York. The new owner takes possession the first of May.

Easter Congregations Fill the Churches

Easter services were held in the churches Sunday with large congregations. The service in the Central Baptist church that made a break in the week of rain that had preceded it. Sermons with lessons from The Resurrection, the theme of the day, the special message of the Easter festival, and the beautiful flowers used in the decorations added their symbolism of the new birth through the risen Christ. Easter lilies, which have always predominated in the floral decorations of this day, were scarce this year because of conditions brought about through the recent war, but other flowers were found to take their place.

First Baptist Church.

At the First Baptist church the Easter spirit was emphasized in the decorations of masses of Easter lilies and potted plants. The service was held at 10 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, delivered an Easter sermon, "The Resurrection of the Christian Apologists."

The evening service was given to the annual Easter concert of the Sunday school. The Easter service was held at 7 o'clock.

divided among the following who had been perfect in attendance at Sunday school for the year: Leonard Hartbridge, Matilda Wright, Madeline Wright, Mary Walz, Viola Walz, Frank Hill, Arthur Beaver, and Elizabeth. Potted pansies which had been used in the beautiful floral decorations were distributed to the members of the school.

Christ Episcopal.

At Christ Episcopal church Easter was observed with the usual special music and Easter sermon by Rev. R. Graham. The decorations of the church and chancel were beautiful and artistic, being of Easter and call lilies, ferns, palms and cut flowers. The window sills of the church were also beautifully banked with lilies and hyacinths.

In the afternoon the Sunday school festival was held and the vested choir sang appropriate Easter music and Rev. Mr. Graham addressed the young people on the Spreading of the Gospel.

On Saturday afternoon at evening prayer Rev. Mr. Graham baptized eight new members.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. E. A. Leary, was upon The Broken Tomb. There were floral decorations of white and green tastefully arranged at the altar rail. Andrew J. Hill and his two children, Frances Mary Hill and William Francis Hill, were baptized by the pastor and four persons were received into church membership, three by letter and one upon profession of faith.

In the afternoon at 4:30 the vested choir rendered the hymn, "The Resurrection Song" (Holt), having the assistance of several singers, and singing with fine harmony and balance. The solos were by Mrs. William Crowe, soprano; Mrs. Leonard Prentice, alto; Miss Jennie Kimball, soprano; Robert Gray, tenor; William Lund, basso, and Archibald Macdonald, basso.

DISCORD PREVAILS ABOUT THE SPANISH CABINET

A. P. The government, which has Madrid, Friday, April 18